These dates are set at the direction of the Court after reviewing the joint status report and discovery plan submitted by the parties. All other dates are specified in the Local Civil Rules and/or the Court's Standing Order in all civil cases. If any of the dates identified in this Order, the Standing Order, or the Local Civil Rules fall on a weekend or federal holiday, the act or event shall be performed on the next business day. These are firm dates that can be changed only by order of the Court, not by agreement of counsel or the parties. The Court will alter these dates only upon good cause shown: failure to complete discovery in the time allowed is not recognized as good cause.

If the trial date assigned to this matter creates an irreconcilable conflict, counsel

1 must notify the Courtroom Deputy Clerk in writing within TEN (10) days of the 2 date of this Order and must set forth the exact nature of the conflict. A failure to do so 3 will be deemed a waiver. Counsel must be prepared to begin trial on the date scheduled, 4 but it should be understood that the trial may have to await the completion of other cases.
